

THE WEEK IN ASTORIA SOCIETY

All items of social or personal nature will please be sent to Miss Alert, 144 Duane street, Phone Red 2091. No communication will be received later than 10 o'clock Saturday morning, except in case of an event occurring later than that time.

As if to prove again the fallacy of the ancient superstition arising from the adage which says—that an ill Easter day foredooms seven like Sundays, in succession, the week began gloriously, and has ended, true to the promise, in floods of golden sunshine and the fragrance of fresh spring. Every tree and shrub is beaded, with pale green buds, and lacy branches droop and shimmer.

The thrill of spring has not seemed to create a desire for diversion, of the usual conventional type. Rather, the effect has been a general transition to "the House in Order." Everyone knows that this is the time that old nests are renovated, and new ones built.

Apocops of the tender tide, and the faint chime of marriage bells, occur these lines, from Emerson's "Love": "The passion re-makes the world for the youth. It makes all things alive and significant. Nature grows conscious. Every bird on the boughs of the tree sings now to his heart and soul. Almost the notes are articulate. The clouds have faces as he looks upon them. The trees of the forest, the waving grass and the peeping flowers have grown intelligent; and almost he fears to trust them with the secret which they seem to invite. Yet nature soothes and sympathizes. In the green solitude he finds a dearer home than with men."

Announcement—
Mr. Benjamin Young announces the engagement of his daughter, Caroline Charlotte to

Mr. William Prescott Ogilvie. And therein is told in formal brevity, the culmination of a charming romance, in which the center of interest is one of the most beautiful young women of Astoria—fair, winsome Miss Carol Young, and Mr. William Prescott Ogilvie, nephew of Sir John Ogilvie, and lawyer and athlete of Vancouver, B. C.

Mr. Ogilvie graduated from McGill's law school at Montreal two years ago, and has since served the term of law under the rules of the court in Canada. While in Montreal two years ago. Mr. Ogilvie won for himself marked athletic honors at that time and has held it ever since. And in Seattle, three weeks ago, won the silver cup for the shot put.

Sir John Ogilvie, uncle of the lively young barrister, was sent to Alaska to adjust boundary line difficulties. Afterwards he went to England to make his report, which so pleased Queen Victoria that she knighted Sir Ogilvie.

Mr. William Prescott Ogilvie has visited Astoria on several occasions. The announcement, which was a surprise to even intimate friends was made at the meeting of the D. M. C. D. Club which Miss Wong entertained on Wednesday, and on the next afternoon, when the Thursday club was entertained by Mrs. Charles Callendar. The marriage will occur sometime in August.

The teachers' institute, which will be held on the 24th, 25th and 26th, is a much-talked of event, and will call into service quite widely the local talent, on the evening of the 25th when there will be presented in the Methodist church a musical program. Prominent educators of Oregon are to be present among whom are State Superintendent Akerman and Miss Marvin, the librarian, from Salem. The institute will be held in the Shively school.

Evening Farewell—
On Wednesday evening Mrs. Skyles entertained in honor of the near departure of Mrs. Rober and Mrs. Broadwater. A number of friends spent a very delightful evening. Six-handed euchre was played at which Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Rober were prize winners.

Next Wednesday evening Mrs. Jennie Busey will give a reception at her residence on Franklin avenue, to the visiting educators who will be here during the week, attending the Institute.

Birthdays—
The birthday of Miss Leah Gilbaugh was celebrated Monday evening by an informal surprise party given Miss Gilbaugh at her home. The small party spent a most enjoyable evening congratulatory to the young hostess. Miss Leah received some very beautiful gifts, among which was a box of out flowers in which there were three dozen choice roses.

Skating Party—
The skating club gave their long postponed party at Seaside this week, a party of about 50 going down from Astoria. The new hall at Seaside, which has a splendid floor, was rented and the Selma's orchestra of Seaside furnished the music. A genuine rollicking skatillon was enjoyed. The club entertained a few invited guests this evening. They were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walsh, Miss Pauline Kopp, Miss Anna Utzinger, Miss Mollie Reynolds, Miss Hazel McGuire, Mr. Stienen, John Utzinger.

Friday Club—
Mrs. Robert Caruthers entertained the Friday Club this week. At cards the prize winners were Mrs. Broadwater and Mr. Welch. Mrs. Morse won the visitor's prize.
The parlors were faintly decked with spring flowers and the wild huckleberry foliage.

Friday Afternoon—
Mrs. Wingate entertained the Friday Afternoon club this week.

Euchre Club—
The Euchre Club was entertained by Mrs. Brenham Van Dusen. At cards, the prizes were won by Mrs. C. W. Fulton and Mr. P. A. Stokes.

Bridge Club—
The Bridge Club has been reorganized. The club numbers two tables. This week Mrs. Will Tallent and Miss Harriet Tallent entertained.

Schroder-Miller—
Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. M. A. Schroder, in East Astoria, Miss Johanna Schroeder and Mr. Harry Miller were married quietly by the Rev. H. D. Chambers, of Portland, by the beautiful ritual of the Episcopal church. Miss Hilda Anderson was bridesmaid, and Mr. Frederick Hedges bestman. The young people left Friday evening for a short wedding trip.

New York Visitor—
Jacob Schmidt, of New York, is in the city visiting with his brothers, Samuel and Chris Schmidt. He is looking over the fishing industries on the Pacific Coast and is accompanied by his wife and son. It is the intention of Mr. Schmidt and family to remain in Astoria for a few days, being favorably impressed with the city.

Mrs. Donnerberg entertained the Clover Club at its regular meeting on Tuesday.

Mrs. L. Moore will leave Monday for Corvallis where she will spend the summer visiting relatives. Mrs. Wyard, her daughter, will accompany her.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schmidt, of New York, are here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Schmidt, for a few weeks.

Mrs. T. A. Hyland and the Misses Hoelling are to leave soon for a tour of the eastern states, returning by way of Jamestown, where they will attend the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher have returned to the city for the summer.

James Robb has left to join his father in the mining business in Nevada.

The Taylor-street school which gave an entertainment last week, took in $150. The Japanese drill was done by the pupils of Miss Alice Goddard was one of the most striking and pretty features of the evening, and much credit is due this young teacher for her skillful training. The school will give another benefit for the piano fund before the close of the term and the remainder of the sum needed has been guaranteed.

The young ladies of the St. Agnes Guild gave a cookie sale in the basement of the church Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Welch are entertaining their niece, Miss Henderson, of Portland, this week.

Miss Fay Ball has returned to the Anna Wright Seminary to resume her studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Schernekau have gone to the Sound country for their anticipated trip for the benefit of Mrs. Schernekau's health.

Miss Mabel Taylor spent last week in Portland visiting and is entertaining friends from Portland this week.

Mrs. H. S. Steele has returned from California and was in the city from Fort Stevens, Thursday.

Dr. Duncan McLean spent a day here last week.

Miss Anita Trenchard, who has been visiting her parents, left for Portland

Wednesday for a few days, after which she will return to spend a few days.

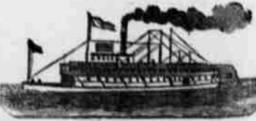

Mrs. Lloyd Van Dusen is visiting in Portland.

This evening there will be an elaborate song service at the Methodist church, under the direction of Miss Elmore. Mr. Nello Johnson will sing. Reverend Barick is away this week for a short season of recreation, having been in ill health, and is accompanied by Dr. Barr and Mr. Turner in Eastern Oregon where they are looking at some government lands.

Talk about your breakfast foods, A thousand you can see; I wouldn't have them as a gift; I'd have Rocky Mountain Tea. For sale by Frank Hart.
